

THE WINGSPAN PROJECT

*Whoever you are, no matter how lonely,
The world offers itself to your imagination,
Calls to you like the wild goose, harsh and exciting –
Over and over announcing your place
In the family of things.
– Mary Oliver*

JOIN THE WINGSPAN PROJECT'S YOUNG PROFESSIONALS NETWORK!

The Young Professionals Network (YPN) is launching our second year of activities in January 2021! We are looking for:

- clinically licensed professionals with more than 5 years of post-graduate experience with demonstrated service and commitment to underserved/underrepresented communities

AND

- mental health professionals with less than 5 years of post-graduate experience or those still in graduate school programs related to mental health and/or social services.

The Young Professionals Network (YPN) supports the growth and development of early career individuals committed to working with underserved and/or underrepresented people and communities. YPN connects these early career individuals with more seasoned professionals who are committed to providing mentorship and consultation on at least a monthly basis. In addition to the monthly individual consultation meetings, YPN also provides periodic training and continuing education opportunities for early career professionals and their mentors with a focus on increasing capacity to provide services to historically marginalized groups.

We are looking for professionals with 5+ years clinical experience to mentor young professionals with less than 5 years post graduate experience

Must be willing to commit to one hour, monthly, face-to-face (in-person/virtual) mentoring for a year

Members of the YPN will have access to professional development opportunities through The Wingspan Project.

All interested mentors/young professionals should send a resume to Amanda Seanior at

aseanior@thewingspanproject.org

Please submit no later than November 30, 2020.